

SCULPTURE at SCENIC WORLD

MEDIA RELEASE

TUESDAY 12 January 2016

Autumn Art Escape offers irresistible package deals

Amid the breathtaking wilderness of the Blue Mountains, Sculpture at Scenic World 2016 offers visitors a magnificent, sense-stirring autumn art escape.

In its fifth year, the Australian rainforest sculpture exhibition is gaining momentum as a compelling event – one that offers visitors a reason to escape the everyday and immerse themselves in a getaway removed from reality.

Sculpture at Scenic World Exhibition Manager, Justin Morrissey, said partnering with some of the Blue Mountain's best accommodation providers means guests can indulge in a mini holiday while taking in a wide variety of sculptural talent in a unique setting, 8 April to 8 May.

"The promise of a break that mixes a choice of tailored accommodation packages with Sculpture at Scenic World, amazing Blue Mountains views and a Public Program that offers something for everyone is enticing for art lovers, enthusiasts and families alike," Justin said.

"Of course, location is key when it comes to a mini art escape and being familiar with the area is what gives us the edge in helping recommend accommodation packages for Sculpture at Scenic World guests."

Six of the Blue Mountain's most recognisable, customer-focused resorts, spas, hotels and lodges including the newly rejuvenated Hydro Majestic, have joined with Sculpture at Scenic World to offer exclusive over-night art escape packages, combining the Ultimate Sculpture Pass to Scenic World with inclusions such as breakfast, high tea, parking, use of leisure facilities, free WiFi and more.

"The Ultimate Sculpture Pass includes VIP express exhibition entry to the rainforest where the the 29 unique sculptures are curated along the 2.4 kilometre Scenic Boardwalk – Australia's longest elevated boardwalk – and unlimited rides on the Scenic Railway, Skyway and Cableway."

"An overnight stay allows visitors to Sculpture at Scenic World to make the most of autumn in the Blue Mountains and our Public Program that extends the exhibition into the centre of Katoomba," Justin said.

Accommodation packages are available now.
